

Vodafone Idea banks on new services to retain revenue market share

FE BUREAU
Kolkata, October 12

ADITYA BIRLA'S GROUP-LED Vodafone Idea is banking on enhanced services to retain its customer base in the wake of a tariff war that has put most telecom companies in a tight spot. The merged entity with 408 million customers had a revenue market share of 32.2% during the first quarter of the current fiscal, executive vice-president Siddhartha Banerjee said.

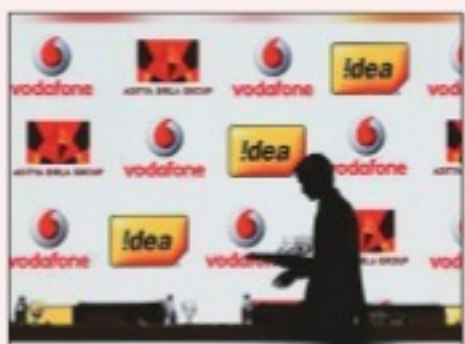

With the onslaught of Jio, maintaining this market share has become a challenge despite a major consolidation in the industry.

Vodafone Idea is trying to deepen its customer base by tapping the women folk, a large section of whom are yet to be subscribers. The company is trying to cash in on the women safety issue with a bouquet of features including emergency alerts, emergency balance and private number recharge, which will work across smart and feature phones even without any balance or mobile internet.

Avneesh Khosla, associate director of Vodafone Idea, said the initiative, called 'Vodafone Sakhi', can send location alerts to 10 preregistered numbers in an untoward situation and also offers 10 free minutes to call during emergencies even with zero talk time. 'Vodafone Sakhi' also provides a dummy ten-digit number to ensure privacy of the mobile number during recharge at retail outlets.

This added service is likely to enable the company to increase its customer base. Despite accounting for around half of the country's population, only 18% of the total 1 billion connections are with women subscribers. Most women have access to only feature phones and basic phones. Vodafone Idea wants to see this large gap in mobile access and usage as an opportunity. "With 'Vodafone Sakhi', we are taking our long-term commitment of driving inclusion and addressing real social problems. The unique free-of-cost service will make it convenient for women to fulfil their aspiration," Khosla said. A 360-degree national marketing campaign has been launched through a thematic film, 'Ab Rukein Kyu', created by an all-women crew and flagged off by ace shuttler PV Sindhu. Banerjee said with a large spectrum portfolio and a number of broadband carriers to support the growing demand for data and voice, Vodafone Idea is committed to create a world class infrastructure to introduce newer and smarter technologies, making both retail and enterprise customers future ready. Its innovative offerings would be accessible through an ecosystem of digital channels as well as extensive on-ground presence. Meanwhile, BSNL is revamping its recharge plans to attract more users. It has revamped ₹29 and ₹9 recharge plans to provide unlimited voice call facilities to compete with Jio offers, a BSNL official said.
